Concept Note/ Objectives of the Webinar and detail :

In the very time of the pandemic when the whole society was almost at a standstill, we successfully completed our Webinar with full cooperation of all the loving teachers, students of our department, and of course our college authority. The Webinar titled "Impact of COVID-19 on our field of Education" was very timely. In this Webinar, some of the students along with the teachers also presented their important speeches. The principal of our college gave a very noteworthy speech as the speaker. The honourable Principal of our college gave a very noteworthy speech as the speaker. He thinks that the students will be affected the most as a result of this disaster. He advised the students how to meditate at home in these days of danger. Dr. Suddhasattwa Banerjee, respected Coordinator, IQAC, of our college Deleberred a very nice presentation about the cause and effects of this pandemic situations and how can we overcome from it. He gave special thanks to the teachers, non-teaching staff and students of our department. He told the students how to study usig online platform in this pereod He boost up in many aspects how students will be maintaining and nursing their mental fitness during this time. Syed M Zaman, head of the department and the main organizer of the webinar deeply explained that what should be the role of the students towards society in this moment of disaster. He assured all the students of the department for any kind of assistance from his end. All the respected remaining teachers of the department also give some important point about the topic

Especially the importance of the weminar increases as some of our students strongly leliber their speeches about the subject .The fact that the entire student community convey their anxiety in their speech for their study in future.

However, they hope that they will be able to overcome this disaster as ambassadors of new youth. At the end of this event, it can be said that we have all pledged that we will fight against all kind of evil to remove all shorts of obstacles and return to their normal life. Normal Classes will fill up again. The college campus will be busy. In the end, the honorable Principal as the head of the institution and Chairpersons of this Seminar give some concluding remarks and declared the seminar is over with unanimous consent. thank you all.
