Objective:

The seminar envisions towards enlightening the importance of sustainable development in holistic development of the economy as well as the society.

Programme Details:

At the onset of the seminar, honourable principal Dr. Nurul Islam and then IQAC Co-ordinator Dr. Suddhasattwa Banerjee delivered their speech wishing the seminar a grand success. Then Prof. Srirupa Ray, Head of the Department of Commerce enlightened the audience with her brief deliberation on the theme of the seminar. Then Dr. Mohua Das Mazumdar (Associate Professor, Department of Commerce, Rampurhat College), seminar's first resource person, explained the role of banks in achieving the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) defined by United Nations as adopted by India in a very detailed and at the same time in a lucid manner. The concerned resource person made her deliberations in online mode which was telecasted through projector to the august gathering in the room. After the enriching valuable session with Dr. Mohua Madam, Prof. Payel Chatterjee beautifully enlightened the attendees of the seminar with a detailed discussion on the inter-linkage between Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) and SDGs. The seminar concluded with vote of thanks by the honourable senior member of the department of Commerce, Prof. Kiranmoy Bera.

Outcome

The august gathering was enlightened about the SDGs and its interlinkages with CSR. Moreover, knowledge about how the banks are playing a crucial role in achieving SDGs was also disseminated through the deliberations in the seminar.

Budget for Seminar

Rs.4,500/-
