Introduction:

The History Department of HiralalBhakat College organized a one day Students' Seminar on "Indian Historiography' in collaboration with IQAC , HiralalBhakat College on 03.04.2019 in Room Number 23 of HiralalBhakat College. It aimed at engaging students in a meaningful dialogue about history and history writing.

Sessions:

The program included interactive sessions that focused on the various crucial topics .

- a) Understanding various facets of Indian Historiography
- b) Studying the various debates in Indian Historiography
- c) Presentation of papers by students participants on various topics of Indian Historiography .

Details:

The program started with lighting of ceremonial lamp by honourable Resource Person . In his inaugural address , Dr Goutam Sen, Teacher-in-Charge of Hiralal Bhakat College expressed the need of rethinking and rewriting history from new perspectives .He said that it is only through learning from the past that we can build a more optimistic future.

The special guest of the seminar was Prof.Pradip Kumar Das , Assistant Professor( History), Kabi Nazrul College . In his speech he focused on the changing narratives of history, and how it was affected by social dynamics and political culture of the time.In his riveting lecture he focused on colonial historiography and its one sided narrative and how Indian scholars began to reclaim their history by delving into ancient texts, archaeological finds and indigenous knowledge systems . He also informed the students about the Indian Historical Scholarship of 20th century which challenged colonial narratives and brought to light the experiences of the marginalized – women, peasants and lower castes.

The next speaker Sukumar Mandal shed light on the intricacies of historical debates and spoke about how history writing across ages shaped the mindset of the generations.

The program ended with vote of thanks by Sukumar Mandal, Head of the Department of History, Hiralal Bhakat College.

Participation:

The program was attended by 110 students, of whom 60 were girls and 50 were boys. It was also attended by Teachers of various faculties and members of Non Teaching Staff of the college .
