➤ Description of the event:

The Department of Arabic at Hiralal Bhakat College, Nalhati, Birbhum, organized a one-day seminar on December 19, 2023, to commemorate 'International Arabic Language Day.' The seminar, held in Room Number 23 of the college, aimed to explore the contemporary status and future prospects of the Arabic language in the 21st century. In collaboration with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of Hiralal Bhakat College, the seminar welcomed all interested teachers and students to participate.

The dignitaries present on the dais included Asst. Prof. Dr. Mohd Alamgir, former Head of Department of Arabic at The University of Burdwan, and Dr. Nurul Islam, the Principal of the college, who served as speakers for the event too.

The program commenced at 12:00 PM with a warm welcome address and a brief introduction by Dr. Mukhlesur Rahman, the Head of Department of Arabic at HBC, Nalhati, Birbhum. Following this, the dignitaries were presented with bouquets by the teachers of the college, signifying gratitude and respect.

Dr. Suddhasattwa Banerjee, the coordinator of IQAC at the college, delivered a concise yet comprehensive presentation, setting the tone for the seminar. This was succeeded by a brief presentation from Syed Manuaruz Zaman, Assistant Professor in the Department of Political Science, who shed light on the key characteristics of the Arabic language.

Dr. Nurul Islam delivered a thought-provoking address, emphasizing the historical and contemporary strategic significance of the Arabic language. His insights illuminated the audience on the importance of Arabic in various spheres of life.

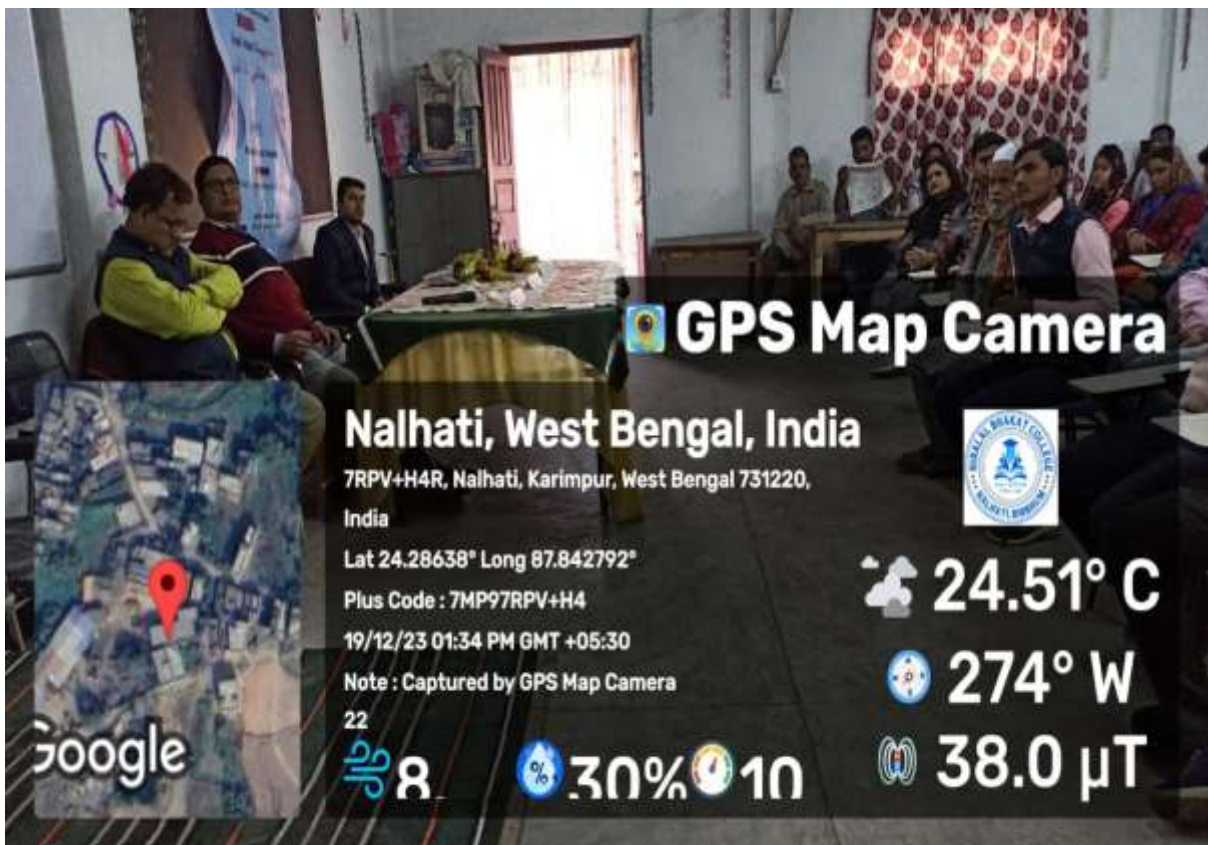

The highlight of the seminar was the keynote address by the Guest Speaker, who delved into the topic "The Arabic Language in the 21st century: Reality and Prospects." The speaker provided an in-depth analysis of the strategic importance of Arabic and highlighted the diverse career opportunities available to Arabic language learners in the modern era.

The seminar concluded with a vote of thanks by Dr. Mukhlesur Rahman, expressing gratitude to all participants, organizers, and attendees. In addition to teachers and non-teaching staff, the seminar attracted 56 students and teacher from various disciplines/subjects, indicating a keen interest in the Arabic language and its relevance in today's world.

Outcome:

The seminar on "The Arabic Language in the 21st Century: Reality and Prospects" held at Hiralal Bhakat College, Nalhati, Birbhum, yielded significant outcomes. It raised awareness about the strategic importance of Arabic in various domains such as education, diplomacy, and trade. Attendees, particularly students, gained a deeper understanding of Arabic's linguistic and cultural richness, inspiring further study and research. Career opportunities for Arabic speakers were highlighted, encouraging participants to consider language proficiency as valuable in sectors like international relations and tourism. It served as a source of motivation for attendees to engage with Arabic beyond the classroom, leading to increased interest and participation in language-related activities within the college community. Overall, the seminar successfully promoted awareness, education, and collaboration related to Arabic language and culture, fostering a deeper appreciation for its significance in the modern world.
