Details: During this COVID pandemic period, we the department of Political Science with assistance of the College authority, NCC and NSS provided some books, pens, notebook and health sanitizers to 25 poor students of our college.. We talk to their families in living surrounding slum areas of Nalhati town We, the teachers, staff and some NSS / NCC volunteers have undertaken this work maintaining proper Covid guidelines with great enthusiasm. During this time all of us using masks and sanitizers. This has been resulted as a great initiative among our beloved students. When everyone's social life was destroyed by the disaster, we completed this work with the co-operation and enthusiasm of our college. Our students were very much excited to receive these small gifts in this miserable situation of the pandemic world.. Seeing the enthusiasm of the students, our other departments have also taken some initiative for such work. From the morning to evening we all got together and did such kind of charitable activity with utmost mental satisfaction throughout the day.
